

THE PORTSMOUTH HERALD.

VOL. XV., NO. 4451.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1899.

PRICE 2 CENTS

Chicago Meat Co.

NEW STORE
241-2 PLEASANT ST.

NEXT TO MARLBORO HOTEL.

Public Invited to Inspect Our New and Modern Market.

→ THE FINEST AND LARGEST LINE OF → BICYCLES!

EVER SHOWN IN PORTSMOUTH.

We are making some extremely low prices on them.
Eight makes (twenty-five samples ready) for inspection.
SEE THE FACERS:—Cleveland, Trinity and Sterling.
Sundries cheaper than ever.

RIDER & COTTON.

SEED POTATOES.

A car load of fine Aroostock County Seed
Potatoes. In large or small lots.

S. A. SCHURMAN & SON, Market Street,

Dealers In

ALL KINDS OF SEEDS AND FARMING TOOLS.

Ladies Fur Capes

Renaired and Changed Over In The Best Manner

And Also Made Stronger Than Ever At

JOHN S. TILTON'S,
18 Congress Street.

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO

- LAWRENCE -

Portsmouth's Swell Tailor

DO NOT FORGET THAT AT MOORCROFT'S

You Can Find the Latest Styles In

Ladies & Children's Footwear

At Prices To Suit All.

12 Market Sq.

MRS. CALL'S SUIT.

Interesting Case on Trial in Supreme Court Yesterday.

EXETER, Apr. 21.—An interesting case was tried before Judge William M. Chase in the supreme court today. This was the suit brought by Mrs. Lizzie J. Call of Portsmouth against the Portsmouth, Kittery and York street railroad, to recover damages for injuries received while attempting to board a car. Page & Bartlett were counsel for the plaintiff and Judge S. W. Emery for the defendant corporation. The jury impaneled was as follows:

Joseph R. Holmes, Portsmouth, foreman; George J. Hill, Plaistow; Clarence E. Cilley, East Kingdon; Charles E. Maynard, Derry; Ira F. Godfrey, Candia; Alva K. Bugbee, Exeter; Edward T. Morse, Chatham; Plummer G. Knowlton, Northwood; Willis G. Mason, Portsmouth; John B. Robinson, Brentwood; Frank H. Fernald, Nottingham; Wallace B. Morrill, South Hampton.

The plaintiff claimed that on the afternoon of Nov. 1, 1897, she went to Kittery Point, Me., to pay a call to her sister, Mrs. Charles Sawyer. About 8.30 o'clock she prepared to return home, and as the railroad ran past her sister's home, she stepped out to the gate to hail a car. The motorman did not see her signal until after passing the house, and she was obliged to walk down the road, several rods to board the car.

Mrs. Sawyer's home is situated upon the edge of a creek, and from the road a high embankment slopes down to the water. Before the railroad was constructed a fence insured the safety of the passersby, but it impeded the progress of the cars and was taken down by the construction company. Beside the road, and about a foot from the inside rail, was a ditch about four feet deep. The night was dark and foggy, and as Mrs. Call was hurrying along to catch the car her foot slipped and she pitched head foremost into the ditch. She was assisted out by the railroad hands and her relatives, and not thinking she was seriously hurt went on to Portsmouth in the car.

Although her right shoulder pained her badly the following day, she went to her work, and not until several weeks later did she consult a physician. Then it was learned that her shoulder was badly dislocated and could not be replaced. Since then, her right arm has withered away and is semi-paralyzed. The evidence was not still introduced today and the case will be continued until tomorrow.

The suit brought against the Exeter street rail way by Jeremiah Hesley and Thomas J. Carey, both of Newburyport, Mass., for damages resulting from the accident on the road last October, will not be tried as they have been privately settled.

Edward Balch of Exeter, indicted for aggravated assault, has pleaded guilty to a simple assault and been fined $20 and costs.

BICYCLE BITS.

Portsmouth dealers say they are selling wheels faster than they can get them. They are behind on orders and factories are being worked night and day in an attempt to meet the demand.

There is no question but this will be the greatest year for wheeling ever known. The reduction in prices has placed the bicycle within the reach of everyone and it has been estimated that there will be at least two or three thousand wheels in Greater Portsmouth before the riding is over this fall.

It is the big manufacturers who are pushing the chainless bicycle so hard, and it looks as if their efforts would be rewarded in the long run, although it is not expected the present year will see an overwhelming demand for the model. However, the makers are patient, for they know that the constant drop of water wears away the largest stone and that it takes considerable missionary work to tear the people away from the customs of the past. Their labors are beginning to bear fruit, though, and nearly every concern in the country has a model out of a chainless type and pushing it more than they did a year ago, when the chainless was considered a fad that would soon wear out. The improvements made in the running gear and the reduced prices have convinced many and it will not be long before the riding public is scratching its head and wondering if it wants a gear cased wheel or a chainless.

"Itching hemorrhoids were the plague of my life. Was almost wild. Doan's Ointment cured me quickly and permanently, after doctors had failed." O. F. Jernwell, Valley street, Bangor, Me., N. Y.

TEA TABLE TALK.

WHAT ARE WE LIVING FOR?

What are we living for?
Just for fun.
To be blown into chips
By a dynamite gun;
To be caught by the measles,
The grip and the blues;
To be cursed with tight collars,
Tight shirts and tight shoes;
To be lashed, to be smacked,
To be stuck in the mud;
To be kicked, to be licked,
To be drowned in the flood;
To be battered and shattered
By wheels and by mules;
To be dashed, to be crazed
By the antics of fools.

What are we living for?
Just for fun.
To be chilled by the frost,
To be boiled by the sun;
To be hooped one day
And discouraged the next;
To be harassed, embarrassed,
Mixed up and perplexed;
To be cursed and rebuffed,
To be thrust, to be thrown;
To be hurled 'round the world
By the tricky cyclone;
To be slammed, to be damned,
By our friends and our foes;
To be knocked, to be mocked,
To be choked full of woes.

What are we living for?
O, just for fun!
To be blamed when we've lost
And reviled when we've won;
To be cursed with the toothache,
Blind staggers, jim-jams;
To be shocked, to be balked
By frauds and by shams;
To be turned inside out
By a runaway train;
To be soaked, to be choked
With trouble and pain;
To be in perpetual
Tumult and broil
From the time of our birth
Till we shake off the coil.

A collegian friend of mine who has been passing his vacation here declares that many of the Portsmouth girls are becoming affected in their speech to an extent that bodes ill for the future of the English language hereabouts. He says that "papa" has become "paw-paw" and that "mama" has become like-wise distorted. Is this insinuation true, or has he done our young women a cruel injustice? Speak up, somebody.

The Boston Herald says, "Teddy Roosevelt must not descend to humbugging the people. The same motive which governed his actions as police commissioner governed his actions at the Capitol. Teddy is always thinking of himself and what the future has in store for him." It is certainly news to us all that Teddy is humbugging the people; or that he has been suspected of doing so. He seems to be solid with the people just now. His actions as police commissioner showed him to be a man of sturdy independence. His part in the war proved his cool courage. His actions since his election as governor of New York stamp him one of clear brain and firm judgment. If he is humbugging the people, we may sensibly pray for a few more humbings of his class.

And the Herald blames Teddy for "thinking of himself and what the future has in store for him." Indeed! If a man doesn't think of himself in these shifting times, surely nobody else will take the trouble to do it for him. I wonder if Mr. McKinley and Tom Reed and Secretary Long and the editor of the Herald and a million other men never think of themselves or their interest?

Those Spanish gunboats have reached Providence. The chickens are slowly coming home to roost. Let us hope that when they get to Boston no old scow will run them down and sink them or smash them so they will have to lay up there for repairs. They've been a century getting anywhere near Portsmouth and we don't want to be robbed of them after all.

A drummer from New York waited in a Congress street pharmacy for a half hour on Thursday, for a car to take him to the west end. He saw the track, the poles and the wire and supposed that the road was in operation. The clerk in the drug store finally deceived him.

Ira Newick tells me that he has not signed with the Haverhill baseball team of the trolley league, although several papers have said so. He is in communication with the Haverhill manager, however. I see that Dorsey of Amesbury, who has worked in the Portsmouth shoe factory and has many acquaintances here, is playing center field for Haverhill.

Manchester is having her luck in retaining her leading clergymen. The Revs. McAllester, Rowley and Morrill make a trio that will be greatly missed in the Queen city. I know them all, and three more agreeable gentlemen I have never met.

"Brother for Brother," the melodrama which appeared here a week or two ago, pleased a large audience at the Park theatre in Manchester on Thursday evening and received very appreciative notices in the papers of that city. I am glad the company has been doing a good business since it left here.

Fogg.

MISS GREEN'S SECOND ANNUAL.

The second annual concert under the management of Miss Mignon B. Green was held at Peirce hall on Friday evening. The talented young Portsmouth pianist may feel justly proud of the rich array of talent presented and the appreciation with which the audience received every number on the programme.

Miss Green's piano selections strengthened her popularity. She was heard twice in solos, modestly giving up the major part of the two hours to the individual work of her co-enterprisers. As an accompanist, she had ample opportunity for displaying her delicate touch and true time.

Those whom Miss Green had secured to round out the occasion were:

Master Henry Helwig, soprano soloist of the Church of the Advent, Boston; Miss Adelaide Barrett Jump, reader, Boston;

Mr. David P. Nason, violinist, Newburyport;

Mr. Soule, cellist; Mr. John H. Parlin, cornetist; and Mr. Alvah Glover Salmon, piano soloist, director of Boston Training School of Music.

Mr. Nason's rendition of Osgood's "Mazurka" was especially satisfactory. Mr. Salmon's technique was, of course, above any criticism and his selections were pleasing. Mr. Soule and Mr. Parlin upheld their reputation as local favorites.

Master Helwig's clear, full soprano was brought forth to excellent advantage in "Merrily I Ream," while his gift of expression was prominently exemplified in Mollenhauer's "Drifting," to violin obligato. Miss Jump's efforts to please succeeded admirably. The time by Miss Green, Mr. Nason and Mr. Soule were charming. Each artist of the evening was heartily encouraged.

Considering the fact that this is the most unfortunate season of the year for concerts or recitals, owing to the natural slackening of musical enthusiasm after the long calendar of winter functions, Miss Green should not feel disappointed because the hall was not crowded. It was a fair-sized audience, and it assembled from real love of the art and genuine interest in the artists.

The programme was as follows:

1. Trio, "Meditation" Richardson
Miss Green, Mr. Nason, Mr. Soule.
2. Soprano Solo, "Merrily I Ream" Schleiffarth
Master Helwig.
3. Reading, "Bobbie Shaftoe" Green
Miss Jump.
4. Piano Solo, "a. Romance, b. Rubinstein
c. Valse dedicated to Faderowski"
Miss Green.
5. Cornet Solo, "Raccolita Sorenaide" Missed
PART II.
Violin Solo, "a. Cavatina, b. Mazurka,
c. Mr. Nason.
6. Piano Solo, "a. Selected
b. Mr. Salmon.
7. Soprano Solo, "Drifting" Violin obligato
Master Helwig. [Mollenhauer
Miss Jump.
8. Trio, "a. Adagio, b. Allegro cinto,
Miss Green, Mr. Nason, Mr. Soule.

Following the concert, dancing was indulged in until a late hour, music being furnished by an orchestra of five pieces.

The following gentlemen officiated as ushers and aids: Mr. Jesse H. Wilson, Mr. Ralph S. Parker, Mr. William Newell, Mr. Arthur Wilson, Mr. Byron Shannon.

Floor Manager, Mr. William P. Robinson.

Miss Green also entertained a number of her friends, and the artists who assisted at the concert, with a delightful lunch in Conservatory hall, after the dance.

JUST WATCH THE RESULT.

So the republican bolter of Kittery only intends to have something to say as to who will succeed Mr. Reed. Just watch the result and you will not be disappointed. He will have about as much to say as he did about defeating Francis Keefe.

The "Hon." will have to content himself with drilling his dozen hirelings to sing "I am the Hon. of Fifty Cents."

No To-Bac For Fifty Cents.

Guaranteed tobacco habit cure. Makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All Druggists.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

CITY BRIEFS.

Horace G. Pender has been appointed a deputy sheriff by Sheriff Pender.

The suit of Dr. F. J. Kimball vs. William Quinn for alleged injury to one of his eyes as the result of a blow, has been settled for less than one per cent of the amount of damage claimed.

The suits for damages brought by Messrs. Dennis Lynes and Patrick Connors against J. A. & A. W. Walker which were to come before this session of the supreme court, have been settled out of court.

The members of Cos. E. and C. of Manchester, who were in the 1st New Hampshire volunteers, yesterday received their state gratuity voted to them by the last legislature. Each man got a little over $40. Company A. of this city will probably be attended to next week.

Mr. Charles H. Calkin has been called to the Portsmouth navy yard as an expert stater, with Fred H. Currier as his assistant. For excellence and thoroughness of work, Mr. Calkin has no equal in this section, and he has done nearly all the large amount of stating required by Hon. Frank Jones, of Portsmouth, and filled many important contracts here and elsewhere.—Exeter News Letter.

Register of Probate Richards of Exeter was on Tuesday called to the probate court of Suffolk county, Mass., by business pertaining to the will of Mary H. Cutts, of Portsmouth, of which the late Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, his son, the late W. H. Hackett, Esq., and Frank Hackett, Esq., of Washington, have been executors. A residuary legatee objects to certain payments in the settlement of the estate, and the matter has been referred.

NEW TIME TABLE.

Next Tuesday, a new time table on the Portsmouth Kittery and York street railway will go into effect. The one hour cars to York Beach are to be restored. Through travel on the road has been a pleasing surprise to the management, and there is some talk of putting on an express car that will run through from the ferry landing, making only one stop at each large place, such as the navy yard station, Kittery Point, York Village, York Harbor, Long Beach and the end of the line.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

WEST & TRUAY, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.;
WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood, and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

H. all's Family Pills are the best.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.
To quit tobacco easily and forever, to read active, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c. or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklets and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

GREENLAND.

GREENLAND, April 22.

In continuing the sketches of Greenland base ball team it would not look well to leave Albert Hatch's name out for we believe him to be one of the hard eat workers on the team. He plays 2nd base. He is 18 years of age and at present time attends the Portsmouth High school, preparing himself for college. We believe he will make one of the strongest athletes that ever graced a college gymnasium.

Once in a while we run across one of those old time freaks who are always crying "hard times," now we are thinking if some of those fellows would only get a hustle on themselves, earn 25 cents and then make one of those 50 per cent paying investments by buying a ticket to the Greenland Musical Society's entertainment to be given in the Methodist church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock p. m. They will forget that such such a thing as hard times ever reigned. The tickets are on sale by the members of the association or can be obtained at the door on the night of the performance.

The circulation of the HERALD in this town is slowly but surely increasing. Two loads of the new pastor's Rev. Mr. Draper's, furniture arrived at the parsonage yesterday afternoon.

The road agents have surely done a good job as far as they went, but they left off too quick.

Some very good singing was heard on the road last night. The open air is a bad place to practice.

Some of the farmers in this town have planted their peas.

I was told that a local paper bawled lately hung 10 rolls of paper in 45 minutes.

Mr. Milage Berry has a gang of men at work shuffling his house.

Ball game today.

REMARKABLE RESCUE.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. She bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at the Globe Grocery Co.'s store. Large bottles 50 cents.

YORK RAISED THE FIRST COMPANY.

"The war had actually begun. The news reached York (Maine) on the evening of April 19th, 1875, and Captain Johnson Moulton collected his company of over sixty men from that old town, and marched on the morning of the next day towards Boston, making fifteen miles and crossing the ferry over Piscataqua river before night. This was the first company that marched from the province of Maine in the war of the Revolution."—Nathan Gould in "Collections and Proceedings of Maine Historical society."

HE MISSED ARTICLES FROM HIS SHIP.

Officer Seymour accompanied the captain of a schooner lying at the railroad dock on board his vessel on Friday evening to overhaul the baggage of four members of his crew. The captain had missed a number of articles, which the officer found.

LARGEST STOCK OF

Ladies', Gents' and Children's Shoes

In the City—Russell and Black.

WE carry none but the best goods for the price:

Men's.....from $1.50 to $4.00
Ladies'....." 1.00 " 3.00
Boys'....." 1.00 " 2.00

"Queen Quality"—The best of American shoe of reputation. $2.00 a pair made to supply the superior foot-wear at a special price. Write and see, from the Boston factory, latest suitable for every one.

O. FRED DUNN
OFF ON THE BAY

The Look in a Woman's Face.

Beauty disappears when the eyes are dull, the skin is sallow and the wrinkles begin to appear. Mrs. Ensign watched her good looks return day by day.

A woman's beauty is more a matter of health than of regular features or perfect proportions.

Without the magnetism of sound health, and the vitality and good spirits that come naturally from sound sleep and good digestion, no woman is altogether charming.

A year of ill health will do more to ruin beauty than ten years of healthful living.

Many a woman is watching with dismay the growing pallor of her cheeks, the coming of wrinkles, the thinness that becomes more distressing every day. Sufferers from such afflictions will be interested to read the story that is told by Mrs. W. H. Ensign, of 419 South Freedom Avenue, Alliance, Ohio.

For no particular reason that she could discover, her health began to "run down," very much as a clock runs down when the power in the spring is exhausted. She steadily grew weaker, thinner, paler every day, till she was hardly able to move about the house.

She was wholly unfit for household work, or any of the duties of life. Her skin became dry and withered. Her eyes were dull and her face constantly wore a pinched, strained look, arising from the unnatural condition of her nerves.

Such faces may be seen everywhere. The unfortunate in this "run down" condition cannot rest at night, cannot digest proper food.

The system is prepared to receive the germs of any disease without resistance. Mrs. Ensign tells of her escape in the following words:

"I was persuaded to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People by reading of their wonderful cures in cases like mine."

"After a few doses there was an exhilarating change."

"I could eat and sleep better than for years."

"My interest in my work came back. I began to improve in feelings and in looks."

"The gain continued steadily as long as I took the pills, and it was permanent."

"I ceased taking them only when I felt in perfect health."

"I cannot find words to express my admiration for this remedy."

As she told her story Mrs. Ensign appeared to be a picture of perfect health.

The vegetable ingredients contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are mixed in accordance with the prescription discovered by Dr. Williams, the celebrated physician.

Analysis shows them to contain, in certain fixed proportions, all the elements that are required to build up new, rich blood and nerve cells.

This power has touched the root of a long list of nervous and blood diseases, and made the pills an unfailing cure for the most desperate cases.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. One box for 50 cents, or six boxes for $2.50.

Handsome Spring Dress.

The engraving represents a spring dress of mauve tulle and mousseline de soie, combined with Venice guipure.

The skirt is of mauve tulle, completely adjusted to the figure to about half-way down. At that point the fullness begins, and the skirt widens considerably to a train at the bottom. The skirt is trimmed with two wide frilled flounces of mauve mousseline de soie over gathered flounces of the same material. The uppermost flounce falls over the head of the lower. The effect is to greatly increase the width of the skirt.

The tunic is of mauve tulle, entirely covered with rich Venice guipure, the pattern being connected and appearing to be made in one piece. It is a kind of "habille redingote" rounded in the rear at the back, cut up at the sides and falling in front over the head of the flounce of mousseline de soie. It is very tightly fitted over the skirt and forms an apron in front.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

Most of the dressy parasols have some trimming of white or black or both. Black chiffon parasols made over a color, violet, for example, are trimmed with bunches of violets caught in chiffon rosettes, are among the many styles in sight. White chiffon and lace parasols are an indescribable succession of puffs, skirts and flills, most beautiful to look upon, and are trimmed with clusters of flowers or ribbon rosette bows. One variety is shirred in tucks all over, and each tuck is headed by a frill of narrow lace edging. More silk parasols in light colors are especially pretty and are made quite plain. There are brocade silk parasols, too, and all sorts and conditions of handles, the natural wood stick being the prevailing style. Colored silk parasols covered with chiffon decorated with appique lace are another pretty novelty for the few who can afford an assortment in this article of dress.

Just the Same "Old" Woman.

"One hears a good deal about the 'new woman,' said a Washington woman who has had long and varied social experience in England and America. 'But it seems to me that the women I meet to-day are very much like the women I knew fifty years ago. They may be more who are highly educated or self-supporting; but the well-bred woman doesn't talk ontology or Greek roots or shop in society, and I can't tell a pretty girl who knows about bugs from the one who doesn't.'"

"But I notice in society one sign that women are changed, and I am delighted with the change. When I was a girl the half hour or whole hour after dinner was the abomination of desolation. The men stayed with their wives and cigars. The women adjourned to the drawing rooms and tamely did penance for their sins. Some of them tried to amuse the men by an incoherent conversation. Some were openly, frankly bored, and the advent of the men was hailed with undisguised joy and relief. Now things are altogether different in this day and generation. To be sure, the men often leave the table with the women, but even when they don't there is no dull hour for the women. Women are more interested in each other than they used to be, and they are more interested in themselves. Whichever it is, the result is the same increased animation and fluent conversation. When a number of women are together, nowadays they seem to have a most hilarious time, and conversation never flags for a moment. I suppose it is because there are more interests in the lives of women than there were in old days. One doesn't need to talk of servants or children or clothes, though these staple topics are still worked hard. I notice, I have often seen a look of actual regret on the women's faces when the doors opened and men came in. It is a wholesome sign."

Old-Fashioned Handboxes.

When grandmamma was young and unweaned great-grandpapa into the purchase of a new bonnet it was usually sent home from the milliner's in a large handbox, which differed from the pasteboard bonnet receptacle of to-day in that it was superbly ornamented with floral designs. As a rule these designs ran to carnations, moss roses and other fine old-fashioned flowers. Some enterprising fadist, in casting about for motif, has whisked the accumulated dust of half a century from the ornamental affairs and reinstated them in popular feminine favor. No beautiful hat or bonnet is properly cared, according to the strict letter of the law of fashion, unless deposited in one of the old-time bedeviled handboxes.

Many of the leading milliners are exhibiting them in connection with those flower-embroidered aviaires and velvet, plume-tipped towers of their art and fashion. The caution and roses are printed on fine, glossy paper, which was the effect and appearance of waxed silk, and the sight of the decorated box is well calculated to subdue those tumultuous emotional outbreaks which are liable to occur when the masculine eye is called upon to contemplate the accoutrements of the sex.

THE NEW PARASOLS.

Folk Don't Flinch and White Silk With Black Velvet Means Is Manning.

The new parasols are very attractive in their varied combinations and degrees of fineness, even though their period of usefulness has not yet come; here, as in every other department of dress, the poka dot flourishes in all sorts. Silk parasols of all tints are spotted over with white, but the most stunning thing of all is the white silk covered with black velvet moons.

Adorned rows of black velvet ribbon trim some of the new finenesses, and quite the newest thing of all is the scalloped edge finished with a ruche of the same silk. The ruche is very narrow and three rows are the usual number put on the spaces between. Lace insertions and frills are also used for trimming, and the same wide cords and tucks seen last season are set in from tip to the edge of the plain sunshades.

SOME NEW PARASOLS.

NO BRET HARTE HEROES.

The Gold Regions Are Comparatively Free from Lawlessness.

There is little disorder in the Alaska and the Klondike regions. The wild life pictured in Bret Harte's books is not in evidence, and that author would vote the place dead slow were he to visit it. Especially in Canada, where the mounted police, the best organized force of its kind in the world, patrols the mining regions at regular intervals, there is little disturbance.

Rossland, just over the border north of Spokane, is a good illustration of this. Last year there were 7,000 miners in Rossland and only one policeman. Yet the town had no serious trouble. The worst fuss that occurred was when a drunken negro got into a fight with a colored woman and struck her several times with his fist. On this side of the line he might have received two months. The Canadian court promptly sent him up for six years.

Pulls do not go with the Canadian police nor with any of the departments of justice. The miners understand this thoroughly and have a wholesome respect for law and order. There are no barrooms pure and simple. Drinks cannot be served except in a bona fide hotel where guests lodge for the night and there is a restaurant serving regular meals. Indians are not allowed to have liquor under any circumstances. Few offences will get a man into the penitentiary quicker than selling spirits to the aborigines. There is no mercy shown whatever.

A Woman as Saw Mill Hand.

"A brawny woman clad in blue cottonade waist and skirt, who is able to run a saw mill engine as well as any man in the business, is rather an unusual sight," said Walter Wade, of Louisville, Ky., "but that is just what I saw in a Tennessee woods a few weeks

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON
COMING NORTH.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The North Atlantic squadron, consisting of the flagship New York, Brooklyn, Indiana, Massachusetts and Texas, sailed today from St. Lucia for St. Pierre, Martinique. The squadron is slowly working its way northward, constantly maneuvering by the way, and the increasing heat in the West Indies will make it necessary to leave these islands in two weeks at least. After its final stop at the southern drill ground off Chesapeake cape the squadron will go to Newport, R. I., to work out some problems set by the war college, and then will repair to New York, where the vessels will be thoroughly overhauled again. The cruiser Newark sailed today from St. Lucia for Montevideo, on her way to the Pacific station. Whether she will go to Samoa or San Francisco will be determined after the vessel arrives at Callao, Peru.

RESPONSIBILITY FIXED.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The secretary of the navy has made public the result of the court of inquiry which was charged to fix the responsibility for the breaking down of the steering gear of the cruiser Chicago as she left the New York navy yard on Feb. 6th last. The court found that Naval Constructor Hibbs was responsible, but as he is now in Cuba and had not had an opportunity to be heard, no action has been taken upon his case. John Nolan, master shipfitter, and Darius Gallagher, leadman, on the New York navy yard, are also charged with responsibility and are suspended for ten days without pay.

THE GLOUCESTER DID HER WORK WELL.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, April 21.—The wreck of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Pluton, which was sunk in the battle in which was destroyed Cervera's squadron, was discovered yesterday about two miles west of Morro castle in eight fathoms of water. It was found by divers from the Yankton, who made a thorough inspection today. The hull lay on its port side and with no indication of having been struck by heavy shells, as originally reported. The vessel, however, is badly stove and literally riddled by six pound shot. Evidently the Gloucester did her work well that day, for the Pluton is utterly ruined. No attempt will be made to raise her.

AN EARTHQUAKE'S HAVOC.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The department of state has been informed by the consul at San Salvador that the city of San Vicente had recently suffered from a severe earthquake and that no telegraph communication could be had with that city, which was reported in ruins. Enough, however, was known to show that help was needed; and a committee was formed to raise subscriptions for immediate relief. The shocks were also felt at San Salvador.

ARRESTED FOR HIGH TREASON AND ESCAPES.

BERLIN, April 21.—Sergeant Major Albrecht of the 129th regiment, who was arrested at Bromberg, Prussia, and was being taken in chains to Spantau, nine miles from here, where the state prison is situated, escaped from his guards and has not yet been captured. He is charged with high treason in delivering to Russian agents details and plans of German fortifications and plans for the mobilizing of the army of Germany.

HANDLER WINS.

New York, April 21.—At the end of the twelfth round of the fight between Dick O'Brien of Lewiston, Me., and Jimmy Handler of Newark, which took place before the Broadway Athletic club tonight, O'Brien's seconds threw up the sponge and Handler was declared the winner.

A FIFTEEN BARRELED RIFLE.

VIENNA, April 21.—The military papers announce the invention of a fifteen-barreled quick-firing rifle, carrying fifteen cartridges at a charge and firing forty-five shots per minute. The weapon has been successfully tested at the Imperial arsenal.

FINED $350.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Capt. John Dillon of the government transport Morgan City has been found guilty of orally beating a sailor on the high seas, and was fined $350. Dillon almost killed a drunken sailor who had struck him.

HOW SAD.

Boston, April 21.—Hon. George Fred Williams tonight gave to the Herald a statement particularly denying that he had been invited by the Hon. William Jennings Bryan to accept the nomination of vice president on the National ticket if tendered him in the event of Bryan's nomination for the presidency. Mr. Williams says: "The subject has never been broached upon, even remotely, in any conversation I have had with him, and I know nothing of his feelings in the matter, even through remarks of friends."

LETTER FROM SAMOA.

LONDON, April 21.—According to a letter received here today from a British naval officer at Apia, Samoa, dated March 18th, the British cruiser Porpoise, Captain Sturdee, in order to suppress the rebels cruised around the coast of Upolu, burning villages and carrying off all the boats of the natives. These the Porpoise brought to Apia. As their boats are regarded by the Samoan islanders as their most valuable possessions it was believed that this plan would inflict really greater disaster upon the natives than the destruction of their villages.

BASE BALL.

The following is the result of the National league base ball games played yesterday:

Washington 3, Boston 7; at Washington 11, Cleveland 4; at Louisville 11, Cleveland 4; at Cincinnati 3, Chicago 6; at Philadelphia 4, Brooklyn 6; at Philadelphia 1, Baltimore 5; at New York 1, Baltimore 5; at St. Louis 6, Pittsburgh 5; at St. Louis.

CIGARS SEIZED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—10,000 cigars were seized here today by internal revenue officers because the boxes bore forged revenue stamps. Collector Lynch will not disclose the name of the person receiving the cigars, but says that they were manufactured in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. The revenue officers claim that they are on the track of 20,000,000 fraudulently labeled cigars.

BOARD RELIEVED.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Secretary Long has relieved the board appointed by him to examine candidates for appointment in the marine corps, and has appointed another headed by Major Richards to carry on the work. No reason was assigned officially for the sudden relief of the first board before the examinations were concluded.

PERISHED IN THE FLAMES OF HIS OWN MAKING.

YUBA CITY, CAL., April 21.—Richard Willis, insane, confined in the court house, set fire to the building today and was himself burned to death. The jail adjoining was also destroyed. There were no persons in the jail. The loss is about $40,000.

A GOOD THING WELL DONE.

New and pleasing ideas in advertising always interest. Nothing has appeared for years which is so attractive as the Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisements, utilizing proverbs and wise sayings as headings, each followed by a little homily cleverly connecting the proverb with the subject. Besides this, the quaint Jesuitical type for the preliminary sentences, finishing with a script slogan, Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints adds to the effectiveness. All this work is running in over 7000 papers.

THROUGH SLEEPING CAR BETWEEN NEW YORK AND KNOXVILLE, TENN., VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD AND THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY ROUTE.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in connection with the Cumberland Valley Railroad and the Norfolk and Western Railway, has placed in service a thorough Pullman buffet sleeping car between New York and Knoxville, Tenn. This car leaves New York daily at 7.40 p. m., and returning arrives New York daily at 7.45 a. m., running each way via Harrisburg and the famous Shenandoah Valley Route.

Relief in Six Hours

Distracting Kidney and Bladder disease relieved in six hours by "New Great South American Kidney Cure." It is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in bladder, kidneys and back, in male or female. Relieves retention of water almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is the remedy. Sold by George Hill Drug at Portsmouth, N. H.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarels Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. C. C. C. Co. fail to cure, druggist's refund money.

UNDER THE RED ROBE

"While traveling about the country an actor has some funny experiences," said William Morris of the "Under the Red Robe" company. "But in all of my theatrical experience I have never had anything that amused me as much as a little thing that happened at one of the small Iowa towns where we played a one-night stand. We arrived at the place in the afternoon and went direct to the theatre to rehearse and found the orchestra waiting our arrival. I explained to the leader, a long-haired individual who looked more like a bass drummer in a brass band than a leader, that we did not need much music during the play and that the only particular piece we wanted him to play was the 'Miserere' from 'Hilfrotture,' which comes in the cathedral scene in the last act. He said he didn't know just how this was and asked if I could hum it. I was doing the best I could when the fellow stopped me and said, 'O yes, I know what that is; it's one of those ragtime pieces, and I think we can play it.' It is unnecessary to say that the play had to be given with the 'Miserere' cut out." "Under the Red Robe" will be seen at Music hall this evening.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

Following are the conveyances of real estate in the county of Rockingham for the week ending April 19th, as recorded in the registry of deeds:

Portsmouth—Helen H. Langdon to Francis E. Langdon, land on Blossom street, $1; Portsmouth Savings bank to Abbie R. Fredrick, land and buildings on State street, $1; John W. Emery, et al., to Goodwin E. Philbrick, land on Miller avenue, $1; Robert H. Hall to Calvin P. Moon, land on Lafayette road, $1; Charles E. Lowd to William J. Fraser, land and buildings corner of Gates and Pleasant streets, $2,700; Fred H. Ward to Thomas Leary, land and buildings on Lafayette's road, $1. Rye—John H. Jenness to Emmons B. Philbrick, certain parts of the Moses C. Philbrick farm, $1. Stratham—Thomas T. Moore, Kansas City, to Frank P. Smith, lands, $1.

AT THE NAVY YARD.

Gunner Phelps, U. S. N., is expected to visit here soon. Naval Constructor Tawressey left for New York Friday night.

A public sale of all condemned stores on the yard has been authorized. The Potomac and Piscataqua both look neat in their coats of white.

It is now the plan for the Alvarado and Sandoval to reach here on the 29th inst.

A. G. Goodwin, clerk in the general store, has recovered from a week's illness.

STORY OF A SLAVE

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, head-ache, back-ache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to the weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Globe Grocery Co., Druggist.

EXETER READY TO ASSIST.

The Raleigh is soon to be at the Portsmouth navy yard for repairs, amounting to perhaps $100,000. This is the vessel which fired the first shot at Manila, the sound of which awoke in America an ambition to be one of the world powers. She had a royal greeting in New York, and should be received by a fine demonstration here. Delegates should be sent from Exeter to extend a welcome—say for instance Gale, Elwell, Marcelline, Dow, Eastman, Follansby, Burleighs and Richards, our hardiest, our bravest and our best.—Exeter Gazette.

HAVE GOOD EARS.

The salute of 11 guns followed by another of 13 guns, given at the Portsmouth navy yard Tuesday noon, in honor of the hauling down of the pennant of Commodore Remy and the unfurling of his flag as rear admiral, to which rank he had just been promoted, was distinctly heard and counted in Exeter.—Exeter News Letter.

OF INTEREST TO MASONS.

Members of the local Masonic organizations who held orders for photographs at Nickerson's studio, can have their contracts fulfilled by presenting them before May 1st.

PERRY E. CONNER.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you've a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

GEORGIAN BAY CANAL.

Montreal, April 21.—A special cable message received from London states that the Dominion syndicate, limited, has been formed to build the Georgian bay canal within three years, and to develop the electrical, mineral, pulp and other industries along the route. Sir Edward Thornton, formerly British minister to the United States is chairman of the company. Mr. Chamberlain has been approached by members of the house of commons with a view to securing an imperial subsidy, and Lord Aberdeen has urged the importance of the scheme from an imperial point of view.

SHOULD BE SENT TO SEA.

The boisterous tongue of a local drunken fiend was what a number of well known citizens were forced to listen to on Thursday evening. It is so well known that the police did not care to tolerate him on the way to the police station.

GRANDMA HAD CONSUMPTION

and I am afraid I have inherited it. I do not feel well; I have a cough; my lungs are sore; am losing flesh. What shall I do?

Your doctor says take care of yourself and take plain cod-liver oil, but you can't take it. Only the strong, healthy person can take it, and they can't take it long. It is so rich it upsets the stomach. But you can take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It is very palatable and easily digested. If you will take plenty of fresh air, and exercise, and SCOTT'S EMULSION steadily, there is very little doubt about your recovery. There are hypophosphites in it; they give strength and tone up the nervous system while the cod-liver oil feeds and nourishes. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

LATEST DESIGNS IN WALL PAPERS FOR 1899.

JOSEPH E. HOXIE PAINTER & DECORATOR

Cor State and Pleasant Sts., invites the public to examine his large line of wall paper and borders before purchasing elsewhere.

We execute everything in the painting and decorative line and do our work to the satisfaction of our customers.

Estimates cheerfully given. TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

'CHIC' LONG-FOCUS MAGAZINE CAMERAS MAKE CABINET PICTURES LANDSCAPES, INTERIORS AND EVERYTHING PHOTOGRAPHIC. ALL JOBS.

CONSTIPATION

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years, placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; such was my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and I feel as if I would give $100.00 for each movement; it is such a relief."

CANDY CATHARTIC CASCARETS

STANTIAL-MIDY

PILES

DRINK ONLY THE PUREST WHISKY. WRIGHT & TAYLOR, Louisville, Ky., DISTILLERS.

FINE OLD KENTUCKY Taylor Whiskey.

If you want purity and richness of flavor, try our OLD KENTUCKY TAYLOR, 8 years old and our own distillation and guaranteed pure. Bottled and shipped direct from our warehouses by us. None genuine without our signature on both labels. For consumption, indigestion, and all ailments requiring stimulants, OLD KENTUCKY TAYLOR has no superior. Sold by all first-class druggists, grocers, and liquor dealers. Sold by Globe Grocery Co., Portsmouth, N. H.

MUSIC HALL.

Saturday Evening April 22. The Great New York Success! The Brilliant Romance!!

UNDER THE RED ROBE!

From the novel by Stanley Weyman, Dramatized by Edward Rose, adapter of "THE PRISONER OF ZENDA," with a powerful cast including

MR. WILLIAM MORRIS.

Management of JULIUS CAHN. Mounted Elaborately with all the Original Scenery and Effects.

PRICES $1.00, 75, 50 and 35 cents. Seats on sale at Grace's, Wednesday

The scarcity and continued high price of Havana tobacco has had no effect on the quantity of

THE CELEBRATED

7-20-4

10 CENT CIGARS. They have always maintained their high standard. Strictly hand-made Sumatra wrapper and long Havana filler. For sale by all first-class dealers

At Wholesale in Portsmouth by FRED S. WENDELL, J. H. SWIFT, Deer and Market Sts., Bridge S

R. G. SULLIVAN, MANUFACTURER, Manchester, N. H.

SEND US ONE DOLLAR and we will send you a high quality stove. Write for our big FREE STOVE CATALOGUE. ACME BIRD.

COAL AND WOOD.

C. E. WALKER & CO., Commission Merchant

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Coal and Wood

Office No. State and Water Sts. PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

Gray & Prime

DELIVER COAL IN BAGS

NO DUST NO NOISE.

111 Market St. Telephone 2-4

Classified Advertisements.

Small advertisements go under without charge

Seven Words to a Line.

Such as Waste, For Sale and To Let. 50 cents or week 25 cents one insertion.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R. I. "A. A." will not benefit. Read 5 cents to "Hippocampus Chemical Co., New York, for 10 cents and 1,000 testimonials.

SALESMAN wanted to carry reasonable line of (free) samples, with exclusive territory, good for 50 weekly cash, from old established high rated factory. P. O. 1271, New York.

SALESMAN—$400 a month and all expenses guaranteed willing to merchandise Arctic Refrigerating Machines for cooling refrigerators, guaranteed 75 per cent cheaper than ice. Exclusive territory assigned. Arctic Refrigerating Co., Cincinnati, O.

GOVERNMENT POSITIONS—Thousands of appointments to be made this year. Post Office, Custom House and Internal Revenue examinations postponed. Full particulars as to all government positions, salaries, etc., furnished free by National Correspondence Institute, Washington, D. C. Write to-day.

TOILET—Furnished room with steam heat. At play at 24 First street.

Place for sale. High grade upright piano. Been used very little, must be sold. Address G. D. Box 33, Dover, N. H.

Send 10 cents to us and we will send you a bottle of our Dandruff and Scalp Cure. P. McKen, N. H.

FOR SALE—Ten R-I-P-A-T-S for 5 cents at druggists. One gives relief.

Professional Cards.

W. O. JUNKINS, M. D.

Residence, 98 State St.

Office, 26 Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H.

OFFICE HOURS: 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. 7 to 10 P. M.

C. D. HINMAN, D. D. S.

DENTAL ROOMS, 16 MARKET SQUARE

Portsmouth, N. H.

F. S. TOWLE, M. D.

78 State Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

Office Hours: 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. 7 to 10 P. M.

STANDARD BRAND.

Newark cement.

400 Barrels of the above Cement Just Landed.

THIS COMPANY'S CEMENT

Has been on the market for the past fifty years. It has been used on the Principal Government and Other

Public Works,

and has received the commendation of Engineers, Architects and Consumers generally.

Persons wanting cement should not be deceived. Obtain the best.

FOR SALE BY

JOHN H. BROUGHTON.

GET YOUR FALL & WINTER SUITS OF

DENNIS O'LEARY, Tailor.

Suits to Order, $14.00 and Upward

Overcoats, $14.00

Pants, $4.00

CUTTING AND MAKING.

Cleaning, Repairing, Turning and Fitting.

8 BRIDGE STREET, PORTSMOUTH

Orders by mail or express promptly

tended to. Inquiries

CALL AND SEE US.

H. W. Nickerson,

Embalmer and Funeral

Director,

5 Daniel St., Portsmouth, N. H.

Calls by night at residence, 6 Court street, or at J. A. Snow's, 16

Gallop street, will receive prompt attention.

Telephone at Office and Residence.

Office Open from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

BROUS' A PERMANENT CURE. The great scientific secret of the cure of the most obstinate cases of Gonorrhea and Gleet, guaranteed from 5 to 10 days. Sold by all druggists.

SINCLAIR, ALBERT WALLACE and E. H. WINCHESTER.

SHIRT WAISTS
ARE NOW READY.
POUL, PERCALE, GINGHAM
AND CALICO.
Prices 50 Cents to $3.00.
LEWIS E. STAPLES,
7 Market Street.
W. E. Paul
Sanitary Plumber,
Heating Engineer
and Contractor.
WINDMILLS AND PIPING.
— SOLE AGENT FOR —
MAGEE
Boston Heater Furnace
MAGEE
Grand Ranges and Stoves.
KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS.
TELEPHONE 55-5.
39 to 45 Market Street.

BICYCLE RECORDS
Do you say that you care nothing about records?
Just stop and think a minute—To be fast a bicycle has to be strong and stiff, with easy-running bearings and perfect alignment. Without these qualities you will never get speed. There, for, get a fast bicycle and you will get one that will stand up and stay with you.
275 World's Records made on ORIENTS in 1898, more than all other makes combined.
PHILBRICK'S
BICYCLE STORE.
FRANKLIN BLOCK,
Portsmouth, N. H.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.
Fellington Street.....$10,000
Union Street.....7,000
Middle Street.....7,000
Vaughan Street.....6,000
Middle Street.....6,000
Herbison Road.....4,000
Richards Avenue.....3,500
State Street.....3,000
State Street.....2,000
Daniel Street.....2,000
Bridge Street.....2,000
Tanner Street.....2,000
Madison Street.....2,000
Mt. Vernon Street.....1,700
Westworth Street.....1,700
Pearbush Street.....1,500
Jefferson Street.....1,500
Warren Street.....1,500
School Street.....1,500
Dearborn Street.....1,400
Water Street.....1,300
Stark Street.....1,300
Clinton Street.....900
and many others in Newcastle, Kittery, Green-land, etc.
FARMs in large variety. House, Lots all sizes and prices.
Tobey's Real Estate Agency,
32 Congress Street.
WE HAVE
CANDY
At All Prices From
10 Cents a Pound Up.
Call and See Our Stock.
RALPH GREEN,
55 Congress Street.

THE HERALD.
SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1899.
AN EXHIBITION OF ROUGH RIDING.
Considerable excitement was created on Market square early on Friday evening by a well-known young man driving a horse at a reckless pace and howling at the top of his voice. He drove down Islington street with two young men in with him, but on the square he bundled them out without ceremony and continued on down Pleasant street. In front of the post-office he wheeled about and lashing his horse drove down Market street and up Deer street, where he was finally captured by Marshall Entwistle and taken to the station house. He was booked for trial for fast driving. It was a most unfortunate occurrence and the young man would never have exhibited himself the way he did if he was not intoxicated.
PROBATE COURT.
The following business was transacted in the probate court for the county of Rockingham for the week ending April 19:
Wills Proved.—Of Joseph W. Chapman, Greenland, John A. M. Chapman, and John A. Chapman, executors; Mary A. Lamprey, North Hampton, Edwin M. and George H. Lamprey, administrators with annexed; Willie J. Foss, Rye, M. Emma Foss, executrix.
Inventories Filed.—In estates of Abram B. Towle, Hampton; Elizabeth W. Murray, Newmarket.
Guardian Appointed.—Charles S. Whidden, Rye, over Charles S. and Charles H. Whidden, Portsmouth.
License Granted.—For sale of real property, estate of Abram B. Towle, Hampton; personal property, estate of Elizabeth W. Murray, Newmarket.
NEW AND ORIGINAL ADVERTISING.
It is interesting to watch the new ideas always to be found in the advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The present line of advertisements is especially unique, each beginning with a familiar proverb and leading up to the good qualities of this famous medicine. The argument in every case is clinched by condensed testimonials from people the medicine has cured. It is gratifying to see the continued success of an article of genuine merit. While other preparations come to surface and after a short time disappear, Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily maintained its place in public confidence.
LOBSTERS THE BILL OF FARE.
Messrs. Thomas Lecky and Sherman Newton gave the diamond drillers employed on the borings at the navy yard a lobster supper at C. W. Ham's restaurant on Friday evening, which proved a very pleasant affair. Among the invited guests present were Mr. Mitchell, the contractor on making the borings for the new dry dock, Mr. Harry Spense, Mr. Charles Garvey and Mr. George Law.
SHOEMAKERS FIGHT.
The police have a warrant for the arrest of Thomas Staples of Eliot for an alleged assault on John Lloyd of this city. Both are young men employed at the shoe factory. The assault grew out of a little disagreement between the two men and after it was over they were discharged by Manager Berry. Up to Friday evening Staples had not been captured.
RALEIGH TO GO OUT OF COMMISSION JUNE FIRST.
The orders of the navy department regarding the Raleigh issued on Thursday will bring her to the Portsmouth yard about May 22nd. She is to be placed out of commission on June 1st, and it is understood that the department will not change the orders already issued.
ANNOUNCEMENT.
Today, and every day next week, our advertised agents, the Globe Grocery Co., will sell you a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, "The Best Salve in the World," and guarantee it to cure Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or money refunded.
H. E. BUCKLEN & CO.,
Chicago, Ill.
TO ENLARGE FORT CONSTITUTION.
A board of officers have been at work making plans for the enlargement of Fort Constitution and the plans have been submitted to Washington.

HE WILL DROP.
Instead of Taking Reed's Place Mitchell Will Wonder Where He Is At.
Editor Herald.—With the announcement that Horace Mitchell, the little politician of Kittery Point, aspired to the position soon to be vacated by the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, brings to surface the fact that Horace will soon be flattened out in his own stamping ground, and that he sees the need of a political position if he could grasp it.
The republicans of that town have allowed this mushroom boss of two years to have his way for this length of time and have seen how he would conduct affairs.
Highways, schools, and everything else he has pushed himself in as manager of, have been used as his political tools, with the result that even his own few decent supporters have become disgusted.
The democratic road commissioner of Kittery Point is a product of Mitchell's. This democratic road commissioner was elected on the republican ticket. Even the Mitchell gang at town meeting thought it best to instruct this commissioner not to employ boys on the highways. It is a sample of Mitchell's work.
But the people are getting acquainted with the Mitchell experiment and he will soon be placed on the shelf in company with others.
The opposition to the present ring, the ring which has been turned down at every step outside of the town and is going to smash in their own balliwick, is already on the run.
The papers of this city will probably devote a little space in the near future to how affairs in Kittery are being conducted. Mitchell has already lost many of his best friends who, though they have perhaps no political preference, would have supported him if anything like republicanism had been apparent.
These people who will force the Kittery Point to defeat are gentlemen that have no use for complete dictation.
EX-SUPPORTER.
Portsmouth, N. H., Apr. 22.
TIT FOR TAT.
When Bert Colson was arrested for impersonating an officer he testified in police court that certain merchants in the city had paid him money with the agreement that he (Colson) should drive another merchant out of business. Now comes the second chapter of the affair which may prove quite as interesting. The man who was to be driven out of town alleges that he has been damaged by this reported action of the Market street and West End merchants to the amount of at least $20,000, and has given the case into the hands of two lawyers. Papers are being drawn and in a short time will be served with the view of bringing the case to trial at the next term of court.
AFTER BETTER SERVICE.
The navy yard employees, residing in Dover, failing in their efforts to get the Boston and Maine railroad to hold the 5.25 Dover train from this city a few minutes, so as to give them more time to connect with it, have chartered a small steamer to take them from the navy yard to Jones' wharf in this city. It is expected that the new boat will make better time than the Mystic as she will carry only the Dover workmen and will land them so much nearer the depot. There are some forty Dover men employed on the yard and they all missed the train Thursday evening.
AN ODD ACCIDENT.
John Randall, a well known Water street fisherman, met with a painful accident on Friday. He was engaged in pushing a box of fish about on a truck when his hands slipped and one of the handles of the truck flew up and struck him a hard blow in the mouth knocking out four teeth and completely paralyzing the lower jaw. The attending physician thinks Mr. Randall will be all right in a few days.
NO USE FOR WIFE BEATERS.
The man to succeed Hon. Thomas B. Reed will not be a wife beater. He will be a straight out and out republican with a record of never bolting regular republican nominees. He will be free from fraud such as was recently exposed in the Maine legislature.
LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.
Police Officer Murphy arrested a couple of York fellows on Water street on Friday afternoon for creating a disturbance. One of them had a revolver and said he was looking for trouble. Both had been drinking and were booked as drunks.
GAVE AN ASSUMED NAME.
It seems that the man arrested yesterday and sent to jail for the larceny of a watch gave an assumed name. The young man comes of a wealthy and prominent Massachusetts family.

CITY BRIEFS.
A man he served his country well—His countrymen they praised— Him far beyond my power to tell; The world looked on amazed At last his home the hero viewed ('Tis thus the records saith) The people showed their gratitude By dining him to death.
—Philadelphia North American.
Local milliners are rushed with work at the present time.
WANTED.—Second girl in kitchen at 54 High street, city.
The Dover track is being made ready for the seasons racing.
Meeting of general committee on U. V. U. ball this evening.
The school children are rehearsing Memorial day programmes.
The board of assessors are getting their business well under way.
The P. A. C. boys enjoyed a social set down at the club last evening.
Samuel Walker of this city has been granted a pension of $6 per month.
A delightful day and many people are in from the country on shopping tours.
The rehearsal of the Gypsy Queen on Friday afternoon was most successful.
Conner, photographer, Studio, (formerly Nickerson's) No 1 Congress street.
Fred Bowles was tried in police court at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the charge of fast driving.
Two hundred and fifty-one dollars have been raised to replace the Liberty bridge flagstaff.
The bicycle pump and the beer pump will soon be worked for all they are worth in the city.
There has been a regular jam of ladies at the New York store branch during the past week.
The "S. G. L." London is made of the choicest stock and is the best ten cent cigar in the market.
The Governor's Arbor day proclamation has not caused the excitement that his Fast day provision did.
The Wentworth house steamer Sagamore now at Sorrento has been ordered made ready to sail for here.
The Chiefs of Police association will be entertained by Dr. J. A. Greene at The Weirs sometime in July.
Have your shoes repaired by John W. Mott, 34 Congress street. Satisfaction guaranteed. Hand sewed work a specialty.
Three drunks, one lodger and one for fast driving were entertained by Capt. Marden at the police station Friday evening.
The question as to what will be done with the police patrol wagon will be disposed of at the next meeting of the aldermen.
The members of Ivy Temple, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, are to give another of their popular what parties on Thursday evening of next week.
A duet by two hand organ grinders which lasted an hour, furnished amusement for people in the vicinity of Music hall on Friday afternoon.
These are halcyon days for the peripatetic peddler, the rasping voiced rag man, the maple syrup vender and the purveyor of early rose bushes.
Howard and Moynahan on Friday evening kept up their winning streak, and defeated Tibbets and Fisher, 30 to 18, in the P. A. C. whist tournament.
A letter from William Gerding states that he has started to overhaul the steamer Viking preparatory for her summer work on the Shoshos route.
The smoke of the ordiferous bon fire penetrates the careful housewife's backyard, smudging her washing and obscuring her cheerful outlook into life.
If the spring weather steadily advances there will probably be an increased demand for patent medicines and a corresponding drop in the price of eggs.
The Warwick whist club received word on Friday from the Nashua team forfeiting the proposed game of Friday evening. This makes 12 games that have been forfeited.
The members of the High school baseball team are practicing daily. They say that there will be no more such scores against them as was rolled up at Newburyport on Wednesday.
The Plant System will take formal possession of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad at midnight, Saturday, April 22nd. This adds about 150 miles to the Plant System mileage.
Lost.—A pocket book containing a sum of money and 2 gold rings, between 10 School street and Vaughan street. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning same to Benj. Lake, 10 School street.
Oscar Laighton of the Oceanic house, Isles of Shoals, informed the Herald on Thursday, that he has the largest number of engagements for the coming season that has ever been known.
The Dover workmen at the navy yard have arranged with the captain of the new steamer Columbia to make trips for their accommodation from the yard to Jones' wharf each evening, so they can catch the 5.20 train home.

PERSONALS.
S. Peter Emery, Esq., is passing a few days in Boston.
Frank Hayes of Dover was here on Friday afternoon.
W. P. Harrington of Manchester was in town on Friday.
John Torrey of Newfields was a visitor in town today.
Mrs. John J. Berry arrived home from Boston this morning.
Miss Mand Emery passed Friday with friends in Exeter.
Harry T. Lord of Manchester was in town on Friday on a visit.
Mr. John Yarwood is passing a few days in Boston on business.
Mr. Thomas Locke has gone to Skowhegan, Me., to pass Sunday.
Lawyer John T. Bartlett of Raymond was a visitor here on Friday.
Mrs. Edgar Stoddard left Friday on a visit to friends in Lawrence.
W. Scott Smith and family of Washington will pass the summer here.
F. C. Marston has a large line of 1899 wall paper patterns at all prices.
Miss Eva Sherburne of Boston came down this morning to attend a funeral.
Mrs. Hermione Lunt of Malden, Mass., is the guest of Mr. John Yarwood.
Mr. T. P. McGowan the well known publisher of Portland was in this city today.
Mrs. Samuel W. Emery and Miss Mand Emery were visitors in Exeter on Friday.
Manager W. K. Hill and wife of the Rockingham have returned from a visit to New York.
Miss Grace A. Henderson who has passed a few days in Boston returned Friday evening.
Mrs. Waterman K. Pryor is visiting her son, Mr. Frank L. Pryor and wife, Hanover street.
Mr. Charles H. Batchelder is visiting his mother, Mrs. Nellie M. Batchelder of Middle street.
Mrs. Dr. F. S. Towle and son, Master Charles, returned home from Boston on Friday evening.
President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine R. R. returns from his trip south the coming week.
Rev. C. la V. Brine, rector of Christ church and Mr. John H. Sugden passed Friday in Concord.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Sheridan of Cambridge are the guests of the latter's mother, Highland street.
Captain Haskell of Taunton, owner of the schooner William E. Downs, was in town on Friday on business.
Mrs. M. B. Paine and Miss Florence Lombard are to spend Sunday at the former's home in Melrose, Mass.
Mrs. William O. Jenkins, John W. Parsons and J. J. Berry were in Exeter on Friday as experts on a court case.
Miss Katherine Pinkham of Kittery, who has been passing a few days in Boston, returned home on Friday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. French of Boston, come to this city today, Saturday, to remain until Tuesday evening among friends.
City Marshal Entwistle and wife with nessed the production of the Christian at the Boston Museum on Thursday evening.
Rev. J. S. Anderson and little niece, Agatha Foster of Boston, who have been passing a few days in this city returned home on Friday.
Mrs. Davis, wife of Superintendent H. W. Davis of the Portland & Rochester railroad, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rice of Hill street.
Mrs. Walter Ladd and her sister, Miss Florence Grace, of Newmarket were called to Kittery, Friday by the illness of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Meyer.
The engagement is announced of Mr. Arthur Hayes Wilson, the popular clerk of the Granite State Fire Insurance Co. and Miss F. Louise Morris of New York city.
The remains of the late Horace A. Lamos, who died at Grand Rapids, Michigan, last winter were brought here Tuesday, and on Wednesday funeral services were held at the Memorial hall, under the auspices of Littlefield Post, G. A. R., of which deceased was a member. Interment was in Forest Glade cemetery.—Somersworth Free Press.
OBITUARY.
Eugene M. Stanley.
Eugene M. Stanley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stanley, died at the home of its parents on May street Friday morning at the age of 27 days.
MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT.
The marriage of Mr. Howard Spacey of this city and Miss Nellie, daughter of Constable John Perkins of Kittery, is announced to occur on Tuesday next.

STANDING ROOM ONLY.
"Under the Red Robe" Played to Packed House at Biddford.
The "Under the Red Robe" company which appears at Music hall this evening arrived from Biddford on the 9 o'clock train today. The members are quartered at the Rockingham. At Biddford last night the company played to a crowded house, the standing room sign being put out, and the greatest of satisfaction was given.
The company is sure of a big house this evening, the advance sale being very large. In spite of this, however, there are many good seats to be had yet. The attraction is unquestionably one of the best that has been ordered here this season and it deserves a patronage limited only by the seating capacity of the house.
ELLSWORTH PINKHAM TO HIS SISTER—WHEN HE JOINED THE YURKTOWN.
To show conclusively that John Ellsworth who was captured with Lieut. Gilmore and fourteen others at Manila was none other than Ellsworth Pinkham of Kittery, it is only necessary to give an abstract of a letter written by him to his sister, Miss Katie Pinkham of Kittery. She has received letters from him at various times since the war and she was notified that he had enlisted under the name of Ellsworth.
U. S. S. Yorktown.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sunday, Jan. 8, 1899.
I have been in this ship since she went into commission. We came down here yesterday and are going to coal tomorrow and then go to Manila in a hurry. I think there is going to be trouble in these islands and we will be in it. All of the gunboats are ordered to go, that are on this side and some from the East. The collier, Nero, came home Manila yesterday and there were two torpedo boats turned over last week to the navy. In future address me as Yours truly,
J. ELLSWORTH.
HAS FRIENDS IN EXETER.
The many Exeter friends of Lieut. Charles S. Hatch will be gratified to hear of his appointment as a first lieutenant in the regular service of the marine corps, where during the late war he was a volunteer second lieutenant. He was honorably discharged a few weeks ago, but recent legislation provided for the appointment of additional officers in the corps, and Mr. "Hatch," having successfully passed the prescribed examination, was appointed last week.—Exeter News Letter.
"Two Heads Are Better Than One."
One, however, is the portion allotted to the average mortal. If this one aches and will not work properly, it is worse than none. When this condition is present, the stomach is blamed, the kidneys come in for censure and the liver is sure not to escape. As a fact, the blood is solely responsible for the condition of these organs.
Let your one head dwell on this fact, because it is the leading point in life and health. The natural blood purifier and tonic is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has been "tried" and never "found wanting." It never disappoints.
Scrofulous Humor.—I was in terrible condition from the itching and burning of scrofulous humor. A crew worked under treatment of several doctors. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. These cured me thoroughly. J. J. LITTLE, Fulton, N. Y.
Pimples.—I have never been well and strong until lately. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored my strength and caused the disappearance of annoying pimples on my forehead. It is a great medicine. ALBERT MESSERLE, 1240 Atlantic St., St. Paul, Minn.
All Gone.—Had no appetite or strength, could not sleep or get rested, was completely run down. Two bottles Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. My appetite returned, my strength came back and I was my own work. Mrs. A. DICK, Millville, N. J.
Erysipelas.—A scrofulous condition of my blood caused me to suffer from erysipelas for 15 years. Physicians did not even help, but Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured this disease. A. E. SMITH, 236 Court Ave., Jeffersonville, Ind.
Vigor.—As a regulator, purifier, and invigorator Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head. It takes away that "brown taste" and gives youthful vigor. J. D. GATTS, 320 State Street, Chicago, Ill.
Tired Feeling.—My appetite was capricious, my liver disordered and I was tired. Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved it all. It cured a friend of mine of female weakness. Mrs. JESSIE A. MEARS, Clayton, Del.
Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints
Hood's Pills cure liver (the non-bruising and only authority to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla)

WE MAKE CANDY.
If you desire free CANDIES visit headquarters.
The sale and manufacture of all high class CANDIES is our business.
J. H. TAYLOR
FAY BLOCK
When It Comes To Selecting Your 1899 Designs Of WALL PAPER
— REMEMBER THAT —
J. H. Gardiner
Is Headquarters.
BEFORE YOU DO YOUR SPRING PAINTING GET HIS ADVICE.
A Full Stock Of Paints, Varnishes, Curtains, Fixtures, Paper Hanging and Room Moldings
Constantly On Hand
10 & 12 Daniel St., Portsmouth
"Have You Tumbled?"

To the fact that we have in our store by far the most ATTRACTIVE LINE OF BICYCLES ever shown to the Portsmouth public. We can sell at any old price, from $25 to $75, and can give you any possible style; chainless or chain; bevel or Sager gears; cushion or rigid frames; 26 or 28 inch wheels.
F. B. PARSHLEY & CO.,
16 CONGRESS ST.
Up-to-date cyclists bring their repairing to us.
Fit Guaranteed
A Suit or Overcoat That Will Please You, And Prices Right.
A NICELY ARRANGED LADIES PARLOR.
Ladies garments, Ladies Par and America styles custom made.
James Haugh,
20 High Street.
Old Furniture Made New.
Why don't you send some of your badly worn upholstered furniture to Robert H. Hall and have it re-upholstered? It will cost but little.
Manufacturer of All Kinds of Cushions and Coverings.
R. H. HALL
Essex Street, New Market.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
G. E. PENDER,
Office—13 Patten St., (Ladies Building)
Hours: 10 a. m. to 12 m., 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.
Residence—3 Morris St.